THE DRAGON

DONNA KNOP

Foreward

The task of the school is to help students adopt the values and ideals of the society in which they live. Standards of excellence should be important in each phase of a student's experience at school. However, standards of achievement should always be related to the purposes of the instruction and the developmental levels of the learners.

Because our culture is undergoing constant change, our schools must likewise change. The shifts in educational philosophy, in community living and family living have thrust additional burdens upon the school. The school has now assumed greater responsibility for the health, recreation and guidance of students. Our schools out of social necessity have become concerned with the all-round development of students. These changes are necessary and essential if our schools are to keep pace with the times.

R. E. Wald

Dedication

As a tribute for her many years of service, we the Senior Class of 1961 dedicate this annual to Ruth Gammardinger in honor and appreciation of her years of service to Stuart High School.

Ruth will always be remembered by anyone who has attended Stuart Schools. Ruth has never failed to cheer the gloomiest day with a pleasing smile and a cheery "Good Morning".

Ruth has always been ready with an aspirin, bandages, and her first-aid skills when needed. Ruth has always been willing to aid the students in any problem they may have, large or small.

It would be impossible to list all of Ruth's fine qualities, or to give her the large reward she deserves.

By this dedication we hope to show Ruth the deep appreciation and thanks felt in the heart of every Senior for her outstanding service to our Class.

We the class of '61, being of sound body and reasonably sound mind, do decree this to be our last will and testament while at Stuart High.

To the faculty we leave the battered books, the themes and outlines handed in for talking, gray hairs and wrinkled brows we caused, the chalk and eraser fights, and our undying gratitude for their help and patience.

To the janitors we leave the 10 broken desks in home room, and the sincere hope that you will have better luck in the new building.

To Mr. Warner we will the never ending applause for his witty remarks.

To Mr. Sturm we leave the admit excuses he always had to ask us for.

To Miss Gunnett and Junior we leave all the book fines that we never paid. There should be enough for a very good steak.

To Mr. Reberry we leave Joan Mitchell's arguments in American History class.

To Mrs. Reberry we leave the jammed typewriters and the hope that you will find those erasers that always disappeared.

I, Bill Barringer, will my ability to get along with Mr. Youngquist to Larry Pote. It's so handy in study hall, you know.

I, Mary Pearl Berry, will my share of calisthenics in P.T. to Carol Hanner. One..two..one..two..

I, Dale Bloomquist, will my ability to type to John Wasson. Lots of luck, John. You'll need it.

I, Larry Carter, will my ability to write themes for Mr. Warner to George Cotter. Amen.

I, Sharon Downing, will my Homecoming Crown to the 1961-62 Homecoming Queen.

I, Illah Eversull, will my teaching ability to Geoffrey Jones. Hope you make it, Geoffrey.

I, Nancy Eversull, will my ability to sit still in the show to Jolene Vitzthum. Keep sitting still, Jolene.

I, Jim Griffin, will my ability to talk longer than anyone in high school to Jim Doherty. Don't run out of breath.

I, Phyllis Hanner, will my average grades to my brother Jim, and my sister Carol. Get with it kids. It's not really so hard.

I, Charlie Hawley, will my ability to stay out of snowdrifts to Gloria Kalbach. Good Luck, Gloria.

I, Ronnie Hiscocks, will my ability to loose 9 points in less than a year to any Driver's Education Student. Hope you have better luck than I did.

I, Roy Holland, will 3 pairs of size 9½ tennis shoes to any underclassman with size 9½ feet and an unpickable lock.

I, Teddy Jones, will my height to Gary Hartman. Hope you can use it, Gary.

I, Jim Kearns, will my tackle position to John Napolus, and my sleeping to Dick Woodson. It won't help your citizenship.

I, Kay Lomax, will the Senior treasurer's book to anybody who can balance it.

I, Jack Matthews, will my job at Enright's Super Value to any girl who would like to work with Craig Wallace.

I, Cheryl B. Loucks, will my ability to write to Steve Nopolus. Start thinking, Steve.

I, Joan Mitchell, will my ability to argue with Mr. Reberry to Jim Belden. Good Luck, Jim, but don't over do it! ! !

I, Julie Nolan, will Mr. Nobbs and his chemistry class to anybody who will take it.

I, Rosemary Parkison, will my long hair to Jolene Vitzthum. Have fun pinning it up every night!

I, Gary Rasmussen, will my new compact car to Russell Wright. Hope it gets you across the tracks.

I, Roger Reynolds, will my talking ability to Mike Wambold.
Keep up the chatter, Mike.

I, Ronald Sheeder, will my American History book to Larry McCorkel. Hope you have a use for it, Larry.

I, Ken Thompson, will my ability to sleep in class to Dennis Lonsdale. Take a nap, Dennis, you're smart enough.

I, Audrey Turner, will my ability to stay eligible for basketball to any junior girl who needs it.

I, Kaye Van Aernam, will my basketball ability to Donna Knop.
Keep up the good work, Donna.

I, Jim Vitzthum, will my ability to part my hair to Alan Gilliam. Try it one time, Al, if you can.

I, Marcia Waalk, will my ability to get my long hair cut to anyone who is thinking about it. It takes a little nerve!

I, Alan Wallace, will my Homecoming Crown to the 1961-62
Homecoming King. Good Luck, Juniors.

I, Mickey Waltz, will my ability to find a campaign manager in five minutes to the next president of the Student Council.

We the Senior class of 1961, do bequeath the above mentioned to any who will accept them, and do decree this to be our last will and testament.

A black and white photograph of a large group of students, likely a yearbook staff or club, posing in a gymnasium. The group is arranged in several rows, with some students sitting on the floor in the front and others standing behind them. A table is set up in the middle ground with a typewriter and other items. A large metal trash can is visible on the right side of the group.
